Workplace Interview Simulation: Wh- Questions with 'To Be'

Part 1: Preparing Your Interview Questions

You are conducting an intake interview for new international team members arriving at the Santiago tech office. Write a complete interview question for each prompt using the correct Wh- word (What, Where, Who, When, Why, How) and the correct form of the verb to be (am, is, are). Use natural contractions (such as What's or Where's) where appropriate.

1. Ask about the candidate's full legal name:

2. Ask about the candidate's city or country of origin:

3. Ask about their current job title or profession:

4. Ask who their project supervisor or manager is:

5. Ask about the start time of their first team briefing today:

6. Ask about the reason they are in Chile this week:

Part 2: Candidate Profiles

Review the profile card below before starting your simulation. Partner A acts as the Interviewer; Partner B role-plays as David, the visiting international specialist. Then switch roles for Candidate 2.
