

Worksheet: Presenting Complex Ideas Simply

Part 1 – Dense Text

Read the following text carefully:

"In the event of policyholder default, the insurer reserves the right to initiate subrogation proceedings, thereby transferring the legal entitlement to pursue recovery of outstanding liabilities from the insured to the insurer, contingent upon prior notification and compliance with statutory obligations."

👉 Your task: Rewrite this text in simpler English so that a non-technical person can understand it.

Part 2 – Language Tools

Nominalization

- Definition: Changing verbs or adjectives into nouns to make ideas more compact.
- Example:
 - Verb: They decided to expand.
 - Nominalized: The decision to expand.
- Practice:
 - Original: The insurer reserves the right to initiate subrogation proceedings.
 - Nominalized: The insurer reserves the right to subrogation.

Cleft Sentences

- Definition: A sentence structure that emphasizes one part using “It is/was ... that ...”
- Example:
 - Normal: The budget increase made the project possible.
 - Cleft: It was the budget increase that made the project possible.

- Practice:
 - Original: The insurer has the right to pursue recovery.
 - Cleft: It is the insurer that has the right to pursue recovery.

Simplification

- Definition: Removing jargon, breaking down ideas, or using analogies.
- Example:
 - Technical: Data is encrypted with AES-256.
 - Simplified: Your information is locked with a digital key only you can open.
- Practice:
 - Original: In the event of policyholder default, the insurer reserves the right to initiate subrogation proceedings.
 - Simplified: If you don't pay, the insurer can take over and try to recover the money.

Clarity

- Definition: Using connectors and logical order to make ideas flow smoothly.
- Example:
 - Messy: Sales grew, costs stayed stable, customer satisfaction improved.
 - Clear: Sales grew by 15%. At the same time, costs stayed stable, and customer satisfaction improved.
- Practice:
 - Original: The insurer may recover the debt, contingent upon prior notification and compliance with statutory obligations.
 - Clear: If the policyholder defaults, the insurer may recover the debt, but only after notifying the insured and following the law.

Part 3 – Your Task

1. Rewrite the dense text using nominalization.
2. Rewrite it again using a cleft sentence.
3. Simplify it into plain English.
4. Finally, make it clear and logical with connectors.
